PRESS RELEASE

Martin Bolt appointed new Country Compliance Officer of Generali Switzerland

Martin Bolt succeeds Daniel Gysel who will be taking on a new role outside Generali from 2019. Bolt has extensive professional experience as an auditor and consultant in the insurance sector. His most recent role was with the BDO, and before he worked at EY and PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Bolt is a graduate of the HSG and a certified public accountant, with accreditation as a lead auditor for insurance companies. He was born in 1979, is married and became father of a daughter this year.

Alexander Lacher, General Counsel and Member of the Management of Generali Switzerland, is looking forward to the new addition: « The appointment of Martin Bolt ensures the personnel continuity for this key position. His expertise is a genuine plus for Generali Switzerland. »

ABOUT GENERALI

Generali is an independent, Italian Group, with a strong international presence. Established in 1831, it is among the world's leading insurers and it is present in over 60 countries with total premium income exceeding €68 billion in 2017. With nearly 71,000 employees in the world and 57 million customers, the Group has a leading position in Western Europe and an increasingly significant presence in Central and Eastern Europe as well as in Asia. In 2017, Generali Group was included among the most sustainable companies in the world by the Corporate Knights ranking.

In Switzerland, Generali has stood for individual insurance solutions in every kind of living situation for 140 years. Almost one million customers rely on the reliable protection it provides from a single source: from property, legal and life insurance to comprehensive pension solutions, as well as attractive fund and bank products. The Generali Switzerland Holding has two head offices, one in Adliswil and one in Nyon. Around 1,800 employees provide qualified advice and excellent service.
