PRESS RELEASE

Generali Switzerland and Swiss Post Solutions (SPS) conclude their cooperation

- The Generali Group Switzerland and Swiss Post Solutions (SPS) have concluded an agreement to collaborate. This step ensures Generali Switzerland's long-term logistics services.
- The duties and responsibilities in the mailroom area and the document digitisation departments in Adliswil and Nyon, both of Generali (Schweiz) Holding AG's registered offices, will be outsourced to SPS on 1 September 2017.
- As of this date, all employees hired on a permanent basis as part of the "Document Management Services" teams in Adliswil and Nyon will be transferred to Swiss Post Solutions as part of a takeover of Generali Switzerland and will continue to carry out the same activities at the same locations. This secures the jobs in the transition to SPS and nothing changes for those individuals affected until the change of the employer.
- SPS guarantees the current quality of service and the services levels. This ensures a seamless transition of the service and responsibilities.

The management of the Generali Group Switzerland has decided on a collaboration with Swiss Post Solutions (SPS), the market leader in Switzerland in the field of information logistics. "This step ensures Generali Switzerland's logistics services in the long term and we also benefit from the high innovation potential in the field of information logistics that SPS can offer as the market leader in Switzerland," says Andreas Krümmel, CEO of the Generali Group Switzerland.

Damian Baer, Director of Swiss Post Solutions Switzerland, says: "We are delighted that Generali has decided to outsource its logistics and digitisation to Swiss Post Solutions and that we can support Generali in its digital transformation for the long term. With this step, Generali will be able to offer its customers significantly shorter turnaround times."

The duties and responsibilities in the mailroom area and the document digitisation departments in Adliswil and Nyon, both of Generali (Schweiz) Holding AG's registered offices, will be outsourced to SPS on 1 September 2017. As of this date, all employees hired on a permanent basis as part of the "Document Management Services" teams in Adliswil and Nyon will be transferred to Swiss Post Solutions as part of a takeover of Generali Switzerland and will continue to carry out the same activities at the same locations. This secures the jobs in the transition to SPS and nothing changes for those individuals affected until the change of the employer.

A total of 31 people currently work on a permanent basis in the mailroom and document digitisation area at the two locations in Adliswil and Nyon, and they will retain their jobs after the company takeover.

SPS guarantees the current quality of service and the services levels. This ensures a seamless transition of the service and responsibilities.
